

Do you know what it means to pay your health insurance premiums using Taxesaver?

It means that your take home pay can be increased because your premiums are deducted before taxes are applied to your income. You are automatically enrolled in Taxesaver, and the deductions you authorize from your pay for health insurance during Open Enrollment are made using this program, unless you specifically request to be removed from it.

This program is governed by Federal regulations. It allows your premiums to be deducted from your gross pay prior to taxes being calculated. With your gross pay reduced, your taxes are lower and you end up with more take-home pay. This is not a tax deferral, but permanent tax avoidance for as long as you participate.

Here is an example: Let's assume you make $35,000 a year ($1346.15 every two weeks) and you claim 3 exemptions on your state and federal taxes. If you select the Trad II plan, what difference does it make in your take home pay if you select Taxesaver? If you have family coverage, you save almost $43 every two weeks or $1112 a year!

Example using Traditional 2	single		family
-	Taxesaver	After Tax	Taxesaver	After Tax
Bi-weekly gross pay	$1,346.15	$1,346.15	$1,346.15	$1,346.15
Anthem Traditional 2 deduction	$56.13	$56.13	$154.37	$154.37
Federal taxes	$105.01	$113.43	$44.22	$67.38
FICA taxes	$98.69	$102.98	$91.17	$102.98
State taxes	$39.94	$41.85	$36.60	$41.85
County taxes	$19.38	$20.31	$17.76	$20.31
Net pay	$1,027.01	$1,011.46	$1,002.03	$959.27
Taxesaver savings	$15.55		$42.76

Each person's tax situation is unique so it is recommended that you seek tax advice in order to understand exactly what it will mean for you.

If you have a payroll deduction for health insurance you can participate. Moreover, if your base annual wage is $33,000 or less you can also have your basic life insurance payroll deduction on the Taxesaver program. Because the Taxesaver program affects your taxable wage, Federal regulations restrict when participating employees can change coverage. This means your ability to change benefit coverage is restricted to federally approved "qualifying" events; for example, marriage, divorce, birth or adoption, or a change in employment status.

If you do not participate in the Taxesaver program, you may drop your coverage at anytime during the year, but you must meet the requirements for qualifying events if you want to re-enroll outside of the annual open enrollment period.
